

Pastor's Piece

February 2024

Dear Friends in Christ,

As always, time seems to be rushing by. This winter, so far, has been very unlike our usual. I've made no apologies for my love of all things winter, but this year... with mild temps, no snow to speak of, and grey dreary days, I've lost my joy for the season. While some things in the cycle of the season are off, the one constant are the seasons of the Christian year. We are on the doorstep of Lent. This year, Easter is early, falling on March 31st. My joy is always renewed in this season!

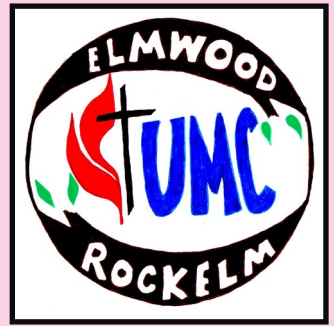

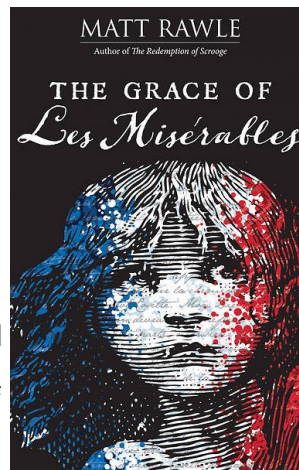

There is a journey we all must take to reach that glorious day. There are many ways we can do that. Beginning on Tuesday, February 6th, we will start our Lenten Book Study. Our meetings will be via zoom, which means no issues around unpredictable weather, or going out at night! We will be using a study and video written by Matt Rawle titled "The Grace of Les Miserable." I'd welcome more of you joining us!

The focus on grace is also part of the emphasis on our scripture lessons this month as well. Jesus has begun his ministry and with each reading we not only hear of his preaching and teaching with authority, we also witness his compassion and grace for each individual he encounters. We are reminded of our mission as disciples of Christ, to extend that same compassion and grace not only among our family, friends and church community, but to the ends of the earth.

That's the goal we work toward. To help us along the way, the season of Lent is a time to reorder our lives. It's the chance to be intentional in prioritizing our time to reflect, pray and serve. With all the busyness of life, I pray you will find time to nurture your relationship with God in Christ. Our Worship time together is a good start, a little more time given to reading scripture or a Lenten devotional (you can find some in a basket as you enter the sanctuary), and attending the special worship times that mark the season, are all ways of growing stronger in faith. Here's the schedule for Lent:

- Ash Wednesday – February 14th, 7:00 pm (Elmwood). A service for reflection and receiving the mark of ashes.
- Palm Sunday – March 24th, Regular worship times: Rock Elm – 9am, Elmwood – 10:30 am.
- Good Friday – 6:00 pm (Rock Elm).
- Easter Sunrise Service – March 31st, 7:30 am (Elmwood) followed by a Continental Breakfast. Easter Service– March 31st, 10:00 am (Rock Elm)

I look forward to our continued journey together!
Shalom, Pastor Meg

Working together Caring for Each Other as Christian Community

As a faith community, we are bound together by the grace of God. As disciples of Jesus our Christ, we commit to living in loving relationship with God in Christ, and strive to live into the likeness of Christ in every aspect of our lives. We love and care for each other, excluding no one from experiencing the love of God.

As we grow in faith through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we look to the power of the Word that comes to us through the scriptures and its application for our daily lives. We grow stronger together as we share in all life's adventures and challenges along the way, all the while building the kingdom of God in the here and now.

This life journey as a faith community requires our commitment to all aspects of what it means to be a church. Our growth as a church requires our prioritizing our relationship with God by being present in the life of the church through worship, study, service and fellowship. As members and friends together, we come to know the meaning of Christian community.

As your pastor, I am charged with bringing a faithful witness to the scriptures, meaningful worship and praise, enlightened learning that encourages your discipleship, and I am to be a supportive presence when and where ever needed.

Here's where I ask your help; while I am actively present in the life of our congregations as a whole, I do not always know the needs. When there is a crisis, a tragedy, or a death, please call me (715-307-7311)! Do not assume I will already know. Every pastor would rather receive 20 calls regarding a situation rather than being the last to know.

We are in ministry together, growing the Kingdom of God, one person, one relationship at a time! May we faithfully follow where the Spirit leads!

Pastor Meg

Devotion for January 22, 2024 by Sue D'Alessio

In the Gospel of Mark, after the baptism and temptation stories (Mark 1:9-13), Jesus called the first disciples (Mark 1:16-20), then Jesus began to cast out unclean spirits (Mark 1:21-28), and to heal many (Mark 1:29-34). After going to a deserted place to pray, Jesus' disciples searched for him and told him, "Everyone is searching for you." (Mark 1:37b)

"There is a God-shaped vacuum in every [person] that only Christ can fill." -Augustine of Hippo, North Africa

"Thou hast made us for thyself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they find rest in thee." -Augustine of Hippo, North Africa (UMHymnal 423)

"Everyone is searching for you." Whether we know it or not, we are all searching for something more, for Christ – for God-with-us.

How easy it is to ignore or not even notice the empty place (vacuum) in us which only Christ can fill, restlessly searching for the sparkling beauty and joy in every moment. Our souls, our very being needs to connect with the mystery and at-one-ment which God has given us in Christ.

We seek to fill that emptiness with food, or busy-ness, or shopping, or sports, or addictions, or... - what is your choice of habits? We believe that everything will be better if we are good enough, or pretty enough, or preach well enough, or are better leaders, or... - what is your choice of beliefs? The places which are filled with violence and conflict (in our hearts and minds, or in our homes, or in our communities, or in many places around the world), are gaping empty places which need to be filled with God's presence of hope and healing and wholeness and holiness.

This is a life-long exploration and journey; we are never completely finished. (Hence why we still have struggles and conflict and why we still hurt others and even ourselves, and why we are still broken.)

Some questions to ponder in the rest of this Epiphany season (until Ash Wednesday, February 14th):

- How, and when, and where (in your body), do you experience the restlessness of God-shaped vacuum/emptiness?
- What are some of your go-to habits which you use to try to fill that emptiness?
- Where are you on your life-journey of searching for Jesus?

We can explore new ways to respond to the search/emptiness (beyond our habitual reactions).

- There are many practices of prayer and meditation. This Lent, our Conference will be engaging in a Dynamite Prayer Journey and you are invited to join.
- Reading scripture – or memorizing and reciting a favorite scripture passage or quote or prayer.
- Physical activities – walking, dancing, exercising, playing an instrument, painting – activities which take us outside our constantly self-talking, thinking-brain.
- Find a community of others who can share the journey and exploration with you.

What have you found which fills your heart and soul with joy and hope and healing? How has your faith journey influenced these experiences? Who are companions for you on your journey?

Healing God, we bring our empty places to you for your Spirit of healing and hope. In our restlessness, help us to find your peace and comfort. In our restless world, help us be your witnesses of hope, justice, and healing. For it is in the name and Spirit of Christ we pray. Amen.

What can I give to Jesus
On this special Valentine's Day?
How can I tell Him I'll love Him,
And follow Him, come what may?

How can I show I need Him?
Should I send a red heart, with lace?
How can I thank Him enough
For his sacrifice, love and grace?

What Valentine can I give Him,
My adoration to impart?
I'll give to Him what He wants most;
I'll yield to Him my heart.

Greetings Neighbors,

Established in 2015 as Spring Valley Seniors Staying Put, Staying Put, Inc. now serves the towns and villages in both the Spring Valley and Elmwood School District areas. We provide services that fill gaps for seniors and adults with disabilities in our rural WI area, helping to maintain their health, wellness, nutrition, social connectedness and access to essential transportation. Staying Put volunteers transport clients for non-emergency medical rides as far as Minneapolis/St. Paul, Rochester and Eau Claire, as well as providing local rides, social programming, light in-home support, and some caregiver respite. We provide missing links to many area services; our help is free to clients. Volunteers continue the rural tradition of "neighbors helping neighbors." Donor funded, Staying Put is a non-profit that relies on individuals, businesses, and foundations to support our mission.

We were busy in 2023, in May welcoming Kendall Vingua as our Advancement Director. She built a new website for Staying Put; she helps with outreach and sharpening our technology skills. Kelly Bonner has taken on Client/Volunteer Director duties, and both became full-time staff in 2024. Congratulations to founding member, Kathy Nyeggen as she retires from Staying Put staff. Fortunately, Kathy will continue as a volunteer, as well as coordinating our music program that provides talent for Sharp Minds/Sharp Notes dances and other social events!

Staying Put will receive a Cycling Without Age TriShaw - a battery-assist rickshaw bicycle made in the Netherlands from an Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) of Pierce Co. transportation grant this Spring. Once it arrives, the WI Bike Federation will conduct a four-hour Tri-Shaw certification training for volunteers to become "pilots." We look forward to a new fun, fair-weather outreach vehicle, as well as attracting volunteers to support our social programming!

Two of our Board Members' Terms are ending, so we are also looking for volunteers to become board member candidates, bringing skills that help with activities to support our rapidly growing rural senior population being able to "age in place" in the greater Spring Valley and Elmwood area communities. The Board meets via Zoom at 8:30 am on the third Monday of the month, and occasionally for committee work or in person events.

In 2022 we doubled our service area into the towns and villages in both the Spring Valley and Elmwood School District areas and appreciate your client and volunteer referrals. The StayingPutInc.org website has more information as well as a volunteer form to share. To request our newsletter, the monthly Staying Put Activities list (February 2024 attached), or to update your contact information, contact Kendall or Kelly at 715-778-5800 or info@stayingputinc.org. We welcome your input and questions!

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Susan Ketchum, Board Secretary

Our worship style is a blend of traditional and new. We combine older hymns with praise choruses. You can come as you are, people dress from semi-casual to casual. Blue jeans are very acceptable. If you come from a church background, been away for a long time, or maybe have never been to church, you will feel welcome here.

Open Hearts. Open Minds. Open Doors.
